

MARTIN_{LLP}

Counselors at Law

Jason Putter Representative Matters

- Represent provider of motor and control solutions with respect to $120 million stock sale of its defense operations to a portfolio company of large private equity fund.
- Represent asset management firm with respect to $11 million sale of equity and revenue stream interests in a private equity fund.
- Represent electric equipment provider with respect to $10 million stock sale of its motor maintenance, service and repair operations to industry leader.
- Represent global family office with respect to its $8.5 million carve out stock purchase of a specialty wire products manufacturer from a publicly traded company.
- Represent seller with respect to $5 million stock sale of wholesale telecommunications provider.
- Represent asset management and professional services firm with respect to various contract and investment matters, including transaction documents for a working capital and supply chain financing solution for Fortune 500 companies.
- Represent outdoor media company with respect to general corporate advice, including documentation for major shareholder redemption and overhaul of corporate governance documents.
- Represent multi location franchisee with respect to various corporate matters, including franchisor contract and corporate governance matters.
- Represent solar and energy storage development provider with respect to management agreements, development services agreements, and other contract matters for multimillion and multibillion solar energy projects.

MARTIN_{LLP}

Counselors at Law

- Represent luxury hotelier with respect to a $25 million hotel acquisition, funding of which included bank debt and private placement equity financing.
- Represent seller with respect to $55 million stock sale of privately held U.S. manufacturer to publicly traded foreign buyer.
- Represent veterinary hospital and boarding resort in connection with its purchase of a $4 million commercial property and related $3 million construction loan.
- Represent seller with respect to $10 million asset sale of oil & gas delivery business to strategic purchaser.

Finance

- Represent borrower with respect to $500 million unsecured revolving credit facility.
- Represent borrower with respect to $5.9 million building loan mortgage credit facility.
- Represent company with respect to $500,000 convertible note offering.
- Represent investor with respect to $650,000 investment in Series A round financing for pharmaceutical company.
- Represent agent and lender in the funding of a $32.5 million senior secured term loan credit facility under the Main Street Lending Program, proceeds to repay existing debt at an ophthalmology focused management services organization.
- Represent agent and first lien lender in the $26 million first lien/second lien financing of a private equity-backed acquisition of midwestern eye care centers.
- Represent agent and lender in the funding of a $34.5 million senior secured term loan credit facility under the Main Street Lending Program, proceeds to refinance existing debt and fund working capital at a global pharma services provider. A separate $3.0 million revolver was closed alongside the Main Street facility.
- Represent administrative agent and first lien lender in the ~$12.0 million first lien/second lien financing of a private equity-backed acquisition of a K-8 homeschool curriculum business.

MARTIN_{LLP}

Counselors at Law

- Represent agent and lender in the funding of a $4.5 million senior secured term loan credit facility, proceeds to repay existing debt at a specialized healthcare education and patient engagement provider.
- Represent agent and lender in the $6.5 million senior secured financing of a private equity-backed acquisition of a Texas-based event center business.
- Represent agent and lender in the funding of a $10 million senior secured unitranche credit facility in connection with private equity purchase of wholesale laundry business.
- Represent agent and lender in the funding of a $19 million senior secured unitranche facility in connection with consulting business acquisition, with equity rollover and reinvestment components.